

Nursery Newsletter

Friday 1st November 2019

Welcome back from the mid- term break, we hope that you enjoyed your time. Next week we will be continuing with the theme of Celebrations. Continue to talk to your child about the things you and your family celebrate. Our focus will be on fireworks, stories, making edible scary spiders, alongside arts and crafts.

Important messages

We know you are busy, but reading with your child for five minutes a night can really help their learning!

Thursday 9.15am
Writing workshop, come and write with us. In the main school.

At home encourage your child to become independent.

Tidy their toys away.

Get dressed and undressed independently.

Feed themselves.

Thanks for your continued support!

Literacy

We will be learning about fireworks and the stories 'Sparks in the Sky' and 'Can't you sleep little bear?'

Communication and Language

Please talk to your child about what happens at the beginning, the middle and the end of any story.

Maths

In Maths we will be supporting children to identify an amount in a set of objects.

We will continue to focus on developing our children's counting skills. Please help your child to practice counting through activities, songs, stories and games.

Song time

Sessions for parents will continue each Friday. Thank you to all the Parents and Carers who came along last week.
