

Nursery Newsletter

Friday 22nd November 2019

Please continue to talk to your child about the things you and your family celebrate...if you have any photos it would be lovely to see them! Perhaps you would like to come and talk to the children or share a song.

Important messages

Reading is so important! On the walk to school read the signs as reading happens everywhere.

Reading books and reading records to returned every week, so that we are able to give your child a new book.

We are having a reading party next week, so please bring a healthy snack to share with your child and a book! (NO NUTS!!)

Wednesday 27th November at the start of your child's session so come and stay for a while!

Bring a book to share or just share ours!

At home encourage your child to become independent.

Tidy their toys away.

Get dressed/undressed independently.

Feed themselves.

Thanks for your continued support!

Literacy

We will continue learning about parties and celebrations using the focus text

"I Want A Party"

The children will learn about acting out a role to help them recall parts of a story and have a go at telling their own!

Communication and Language

Please talk to your child about why you have parties or attend a party. Talk to your child about what games they play at parties.

Invitations, party, balloons, sandwiches, crackers

Maths

In Maths we will continue to support children to identify an amount in a set of objects and matching amounts in a set to the number. The children will also learn how to split small numbers in different ways

1,2,3,4,5,6..... so there are 6!!!!

1,2,3 here..... and 1,2,3, here!

This week we made our own Snow Flower collages using lots of glue and other materials! We had so much fun changing the shape of the material!

Attendance w/e 15/11/19

Whole school: 94.2%

Carle: 85.2%

Ross: 90%

Potter: 79.2%

This week Ross Class were our winners! Congratulations

The Government's expectation is that attendance should exceed 96.5%. We will be monitoring attendance weekly.

Song time

Sessions for parents will continue each Friday. Thank you to all the Parents and Carers who came along last week.

Ross and Carle classes-11:15am

Potter Class-3:00 pm

Please come along!

Talk to your child about the school motto song!

We would like to take photos for our website!

Please support your child to WALK to school. This is vital for their physical development.
