English

For our English focus next week, we will be looking at different types of poems and focusing on Performance Poetry. We will recite and perform some poems which the children will have created.

How you can help at home:

Visit your local library and find books on poetry. How many different types of poems can you find?

Maths

For our Maths focus next week, the children will be looking at time. We will be focusing on telling the time to the hour, half hour and quarter past and quarter to.

How you can help at home:

Practise telling the time at home with your child on an analogue clock e.g. 1 o'clock.

Word of the week

Next week's word of the week is...

'elegant'

This means graceful.

Can you use the word in a sentence?

Important reminders

Parent Consultation evening

Parent consultation evenings are on Tuesday 10th December and Wednesday 11th December. They are a very important part of your child's education. Please ensure you have made an appointment to see your child's teacher to discuss their progress so far.

Reading

Please keep the book for 3 days and use the parent guide to help support with reading activities at home. Please do write a comment in the reading record. Kindly ensure they bring their reading book and record to school regularly and encourage them to take books home from their class library.

Spellings and times tables.

Your child will be bringing home a separate sheet of paper with spellings and x tables to learn at home.

The Year 2 Christmas performance will be held on Tuesday 17th December at 2.30pm

Santa is coming to Winterbourne!!

A quick reminder on Wednesday 18th December we have a special guest to visit our children at Winterbourne Nursery and Infant School.

Winterbourne Café

Mrs Jones, our Deputy Headteacher hosted the special 'Winterbourne Café' for the children who demonstrated outstanding behaviour during lunchtime. After their dinner, the children could be heard excitedly talking to their peers about the amazing experience they had while eating on a set dining table with Mrs. Jones serving their dinner and pouring out juice for them. Go to the school Website to see some pictures from this special occasion. Congratulations to all the children who won the Golden Tickets!
