English

Next week in English we will continue looking at the story 'Sky Colour' by Peter H. Reynolds. We will be role playing the story using feeling words. We will be also writing a story map by identifying the beginning, middle and end of the story.

How you can help at home:

Please read support your child to read the reading book that we send home and support your child to identify the beginning, the middle and the end of the book they read.

Maths

Next week in Maths we will be looking at multiplication. We will be doing that by counting in 2s, 5s and 10s. We will be looking at arrays and use counters to make arrays. We will also find out how many groups there are, as well as how many are in a group. Here is an example:

How you can help at home:

Try to represent the following numbers by using the array model:

10

25

30

35

Sounds of the week

This week we reviewed all our phase 5 sounds.

We also recapped the tricky words:

come, some, when, said

Practise writing them and then try using them in a word or sentence!

Words of the week

Elegant:

Showing good taste.

Tastefully fine or luxurious.

Landscape:

A landscape is the visible features of an area of land, its landforms, and how they integrate with natural or man-made features.

Homework books

We are sending English and Maths homework books at home to support your child with home learning.

This week please complete page 9 in the English book and page 45 in the Maths book.

You can find the answers in the books. Please get your child to self-correct their work.

Important messages

The reading book your child brings home is now the reading book they read with the class teacher during their daily reading lessons. Please ensure that your child brings their book into school every day. If a book has been lost or damaged, we will be asking you to cover the cost. Thank you for understanding.

Please make sure your child's name is in all of their clothing and items such as water bottles and packed lunch boxes. This is to ensure that their clothes do not become lost. Teachers are not responsible for children's lost items. Please check lost property for any missing items.

Please make sure you are dropping off and collecting your child promptly. The school opens at 8:45am and collection is at 3:25pm.

Stars of the week

Each Friday we have an achievement assembly where the class teacher chooses two children who stood out because of their amazing learning, behaviour or values.
