

Our Geography Learning Journey

Key vocabulary:

Map

Symbols

Aerial view

Field work

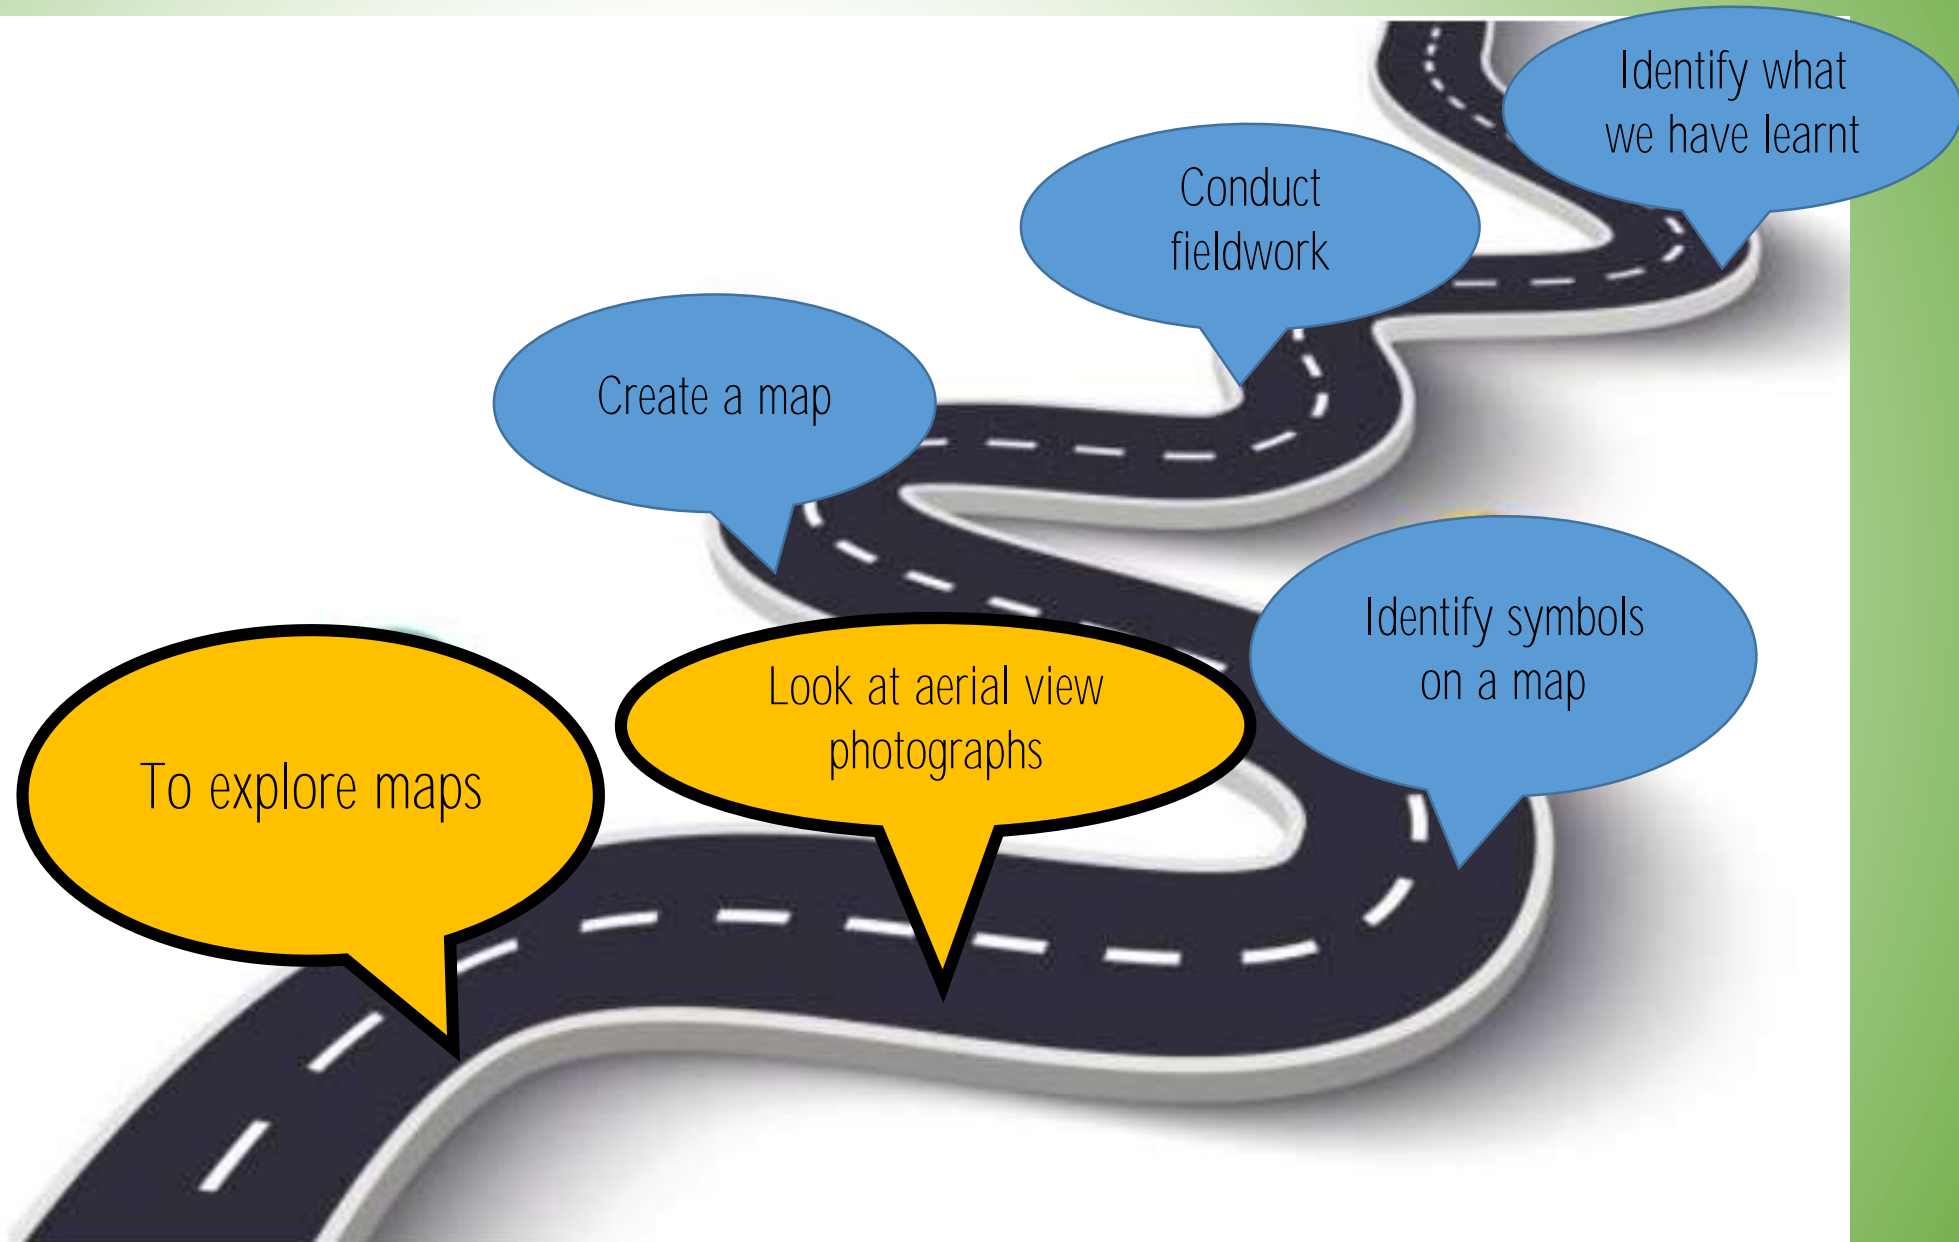

Human feature

Physical feature

Travel

Birds eye view

Ground View

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

Steps to Success

All – I understand what aerial view means

Most – I know the difference between aerial view and ground view.

Some – I can discuss why having an aerial view on maps is useful.

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

STAR WORDS

ariel view

bird eye view

map

ground view

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

TPs:
What do you remember
about maps?
What did you notice/
discover about maps?

Sentence Stems:
We are learning about...
Maps are...

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

This week we are going to be looking at aerial views.

An aerial view is, the viewpoint seen from above. This is also known as a 'birds eye view'.

TPs:
What is an aerial view?
Why might the term 'bird's-eye view' be used?

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

Aerial view

TPs:

What are these images of?

How is an aerial view different from how we see things usually?

How is the ground level view different to an aerial view?

Ground level

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

TPs:
Is this an aerial view
or ground view?
How do you know?

Why do you think maps are shown in aerial view?

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

We are going to explore Google Earth and type in different locations in aerial view:

<https://earth.google.com/web/>

Croydon Town Centre, McDonalds Thornton Heath,
mount fuji (volcano), Brighton beach and Kenya.

Can you think of any more locations?

Word mat

far near left

right

in front

TPs: What can you see when looking at the aerial view?

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

We are going to explore Google Earth and type in different locations on ground view:

<https://earth.google.com/web/>

Word mat

far

near

left

right

in front

Croydon Town Centre, McDonalds Thornton Heath,
mount fuji (volcano), Brighton beach and Kenya.

Can you think of any more locations?

TPs: What can you see when looking at the ground view?
How is it ground view different from aerial view?

Self Assessment

Do you understand what is an aerial view map?

LQ: Can I interpret an aerial view photograph?

TASK

Write what you can see on the aerial view map of Thornton Heath?

Self Assessment

Do you understand what to do?

NS - Why do you think maps are shown in aerial view?
OR
NS – Why would you use and aerial view photograph?