TPs- How does adding 'ed' change the word?

It tells us that the action has happened in the past. This is called the past tense.

LQ - Can I consolidate my learning?

Monday 18th March 2024

Normally, you can just add 'ed' to the end of the word without changing the spelling play played

walk

walked cook

LQ - Can I consolidate my learning?

Monday 18th March 2024

However, this isn't always the case. Look at the words below. The suffix 'ed' has been added to change the word to the past tense.

TPs- What do you notice?

We have doubled the consonant!

patted

skip

skipped

beg begged

drop dropped

If the vowel is a short sound with only one consonant after it, then double the consonant in the spelling.

Let's read this story together.

TPs- Has this been written correctly?

once upon a time, there lived a very forgetful princess called Sara. princess Sara was always forgetting things. eventually, one day the queen set her a test. "never forget these magic words," said the queen, so every day, Sara wrote down the words in case she forgot them. soon, months went by and slowly, the princess forgot to write them every day. everyone was happy, until one day, a bad dragon kidnapped the queen and locked her up in a castle. sara decided she would rescue the queen and when she arrived at the door of the castle, it spoke to her. "after you speak the magic words, I will open," said the door. "magic words...?" Sara asked. eyes tight shut, she thought hard and at that very moment, Sara remembered the magic words and spoke them to the door...

TPs- What is missing?

LQ - Can I consolidate my learning?

The story was missing capital letters. A capital letter is needed at the beginning of each sentence, it is also used for proper nouns.

LQ - Can I consolidate my learning?

Why do we use a comma?

A comma separates units of meaning in a sentence. For example it can be used to separate items in a list.

I had an apple, banana , orange and grapes in my lunchbox.

Whilst I was standing on the large Tower Bridge, I saw a boat, people walking by and I could see tall buildings.

Look inside these holiday suitcases. Can you write a sentence using commas to list what each of these people are taking on holiday?

Isabelle is taking...

Roshan is taking...

Sahil is taking...

Ada is taking...

Task

Write about your day yesterday. What did you do?

Who did you play with?

Remember to use a capital letter in the right place.

If you are making list add a comma. If it has happened in the past don't forget to add the correct suffix.
