

Let's warm up our brains!

tremendous

Do you know what this word means?

very great in amount, scale, or intensity.

Sentence

Synonyms

The amount of sweets the children had was tremendous.

Huge Enormous massive

TP- Can you use it in a sentence?

Monday 24th – Friday 28th June 2024

Can I prepare for my graduation ceremony?

Step to Success

- I can talk about what I have learnt in Year Two.
- I can discuss my favourite Winterbourne memory.
- I can practise a song.

Star Words

Memory

Winterbourne

Graduate

Celebrate

Junior school

This week we are going to be preparing for our graduation ceremony!

Next month you will be graduating from Year Two. We have some very important people coming to the graduation ceremony so we are going to put on a show.

Task 1

TP- What do you remember from

- Nursery?
- Reception?
- Year 1?
- Year 2?

*TPs- What is your favourite
Winterbourne memory?*

Sentence Starter:

My favourite Winterbourne memory is ...

Task 1

Now you are going to work in pairs to act out your favourite memory.

TPs- What is your favourite Winterbourne memory?

Sentence Starter:

My favourite Winterbourne memory is ...

Tuesday 27th – Friday 30th June 2023

Can I prepare for my graduation ceremony?

Step to Success

- I can talk about what I have learnt in Year Two.
- I can discuss my favourite Winterbourne memory.
- I can practise a song.

*Yesterday you acted out your favourite
Winterbourne memory*

TP- What are your most memorable experiences at Winterbourne?

Task 1

Now you are going to write your favourite memory and memorise it as we are going to practice it to put in our graduation assembly.

TPs- What is your favourite Winterbourne memory?

Sentence Starter:

My favourite Winterbourne memory is ...

Task 2

We are going to talk about your favourite memory of you being at Winterbourne Nursery and Infants School.

TPs- What did you enjoy learning in Year Two?

Sentence Starter:

In year two I learnt ...

Now write it down.

Task 3

Now let's practise our songs and memorise our Winterbourne memory.