LQ: What is Special to you?

Who is special in your life?

TP:

Think about your friends and family.

*Think about the different ways
friends and family show they care for each other.*

Think about what they do that shows they care?

LQ: What is Special to you?

There are lots of things that different people see as being special. For example:

People (Mum, Dad, Grandparents, Cousins Siblings) etc.

Things (Toys, clothes, shoes, baby blankets, gifts)

Something
Special

LQ: What is Special to you?

Suri and Gran

Here is an example, Suri is thinking about her special people. She is writing about Gran.

Suri thinks Gran is a really special person. Gran always wears big earrings and she loves red lipstick. Gran says it makes her feel bright and happy. When Suri is at school, Gran picks her up. Last summer they went to the park all the time. Suri loved the roundabout when Gran swung her round so fast! She also liked it when Gran used to come over to babysit, because Gran always told the funniest bedtime stories

LQ: What is Special to you?

Task 1: Whiteboard

Think about people who are special to you. It might include your friends or people in your family. Make a spider diagram like this one of the special people in your life.

LQ: What is Special to you?

Task 2

Whiteboard

Write about someone or something that is special to you.

What words describe your special person or thing?

- What is it that them special?
- What things do you and your special person like doing together / that things do you do with your special thing?
- Why are they important to you?

LQ: What is Special to you?

Task 3 Complete the task in the books.

People can be special because they are good at something or they have a hobby such as playing an instrument.

Draw a picture of yourself in the middle of the shield then write about the different things that make you special.
