

L.Q: Can I understand the importance of being responsible?

Steps to success:

I can demonstrate good listening .

I can listen and take turns to speak .

I can identify my responsibilities.

Today we are going to discuss how to make our class and school community a better place.

RESPONSIBILITY

TP: What does this word mean to you?

TPS: Can you give examples of being responsible?

TPS: How are you responsible? What are you responsible for?

TPS: Why is it important?

It is important because.....

Responsibility means.....

Responsibility means being dependable, making good choices, and taking accountability for your actions. Being responsible also means that you look out for the well being of other people and understand we all have a part to play in making the world a better place.

Do you understand what it means by taking responsibility?

Explain what you see .....

I can see.....

Explain what you see .....

I can see.....

Task

Discuss how you can be responsible to make your classroom and school a better place.

Have you been given any responsibilities in school?

How have they helped your school community?

Give examples of when you have been responsible on your own initiative. Why? Write on your speech bubble.

Chn can write on speech bubbles what they are responsible for

Do you understand the task?

